Fraud prevention and detection

In order to prevent and detect fraud we may at any time:

In addition, Zurich may register your name on the Insurance Fraud Register, an industry-wide fraud database.

Claims history

We may pass information relating to claims or potential claims to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register (CUE), where the data is controlled by the Motor Insurers' Bureau, and other relevant databases.

We and other insurers may search these databases when you apply for insurance, when claims or potential claims are notified to us or at time of renewal to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim.

- b) If the insured does not comply with clause a) of this condition the insurer may:
 - i) avoid this policy which means that the insurer will treat it as if it had never existed and refuse all claims where any non-disclosure or misrepresentation by the insured is proven by the insurer to be deliberate or reckless in which case the insurer will not return the premium paid by the insured; and
 - ii) recover from the insured any amount the insurer has already paid for any claims including costs or expenses the insurer has incurred.

 - 2) recover from the insured any amount the insurer has already paid for any claims including costs or expenses the insurer has incurred
- ii) if the insurer would have applied different terms to the cover the insurer will have the option to treat this policy as if those different terms apply. The insurer may recover any payments made by the insurer on claims which have already been paid to the extent that such claims would not have been payable had such additional terms been applied

Provided always that if the person concerned or the insured acting on their behalf makes a careless misrepresentation of fact the insurer may invoke the remedies available to the insurer under this condition as against that particular person as if a separate insurance contract had been issued to them leaving the remainder of the policy unaffected.

- f) suppresses information which the insured knows would otherwise enable the insurer to refuse to pay a claim under this policy the insurer will be entitled to refuse to pay the whole of the claim and recover any sums that the insurer has already paid in respect of the claim.

The insurer may also notify the insured that the insurer will be treating this policy as having terminated with effect from the date of any of the acts or omissions set out in clauses a) to f) of this condition.

If the insurer terminates this policy under this condition the insured will have no cover under this policy from the date of termination and not be entitled to any refund of premium.

If any fraud is perpetrated by or on behalf of an insured person and not on behalf of the insured this condition should be read as if it applies only to that insured person's claim and references to this policy should be read as if they were references to the cover effected for that person alone and not to the policy as a whole.
